Raiders Down SR 69-47 In Opening Round

The Appomattox Raiders broke open a tight game in the second quarter and went on to beat the Staunton River Golden Eagles 69-47 last Tuesday night in the opening round of the Seminole District basketball tournament which was held on the winner's court. The winadvanced the Raiders into the semi-finals against Gretna. The Raiders finished second in the regular season and SR seventh.

Appomattox led only 10-9 at the end of the first quarter as the Golden Eagles attempted to slow the game down for the good shot. In the second quarter, the Raiders broke it open with a 16-6 advantage over SR for a 26-15 lead at the half and was never in trouble after that. The Raiders outscored SR 17-14 in the third quarter for a 43-29 lead and in the fourth quarter Appomattox hit for 26 points to 18 for SR as David Johnson scored nine in the quarter as the Raiders cleaned their bench with 10 players getting in on the scoring.

The Raiders shot 50% or better in every quarter and ended the game with 31 of 55 for a 56% mark from the floor. The Golden Eagles hit 13 of 31 for 42%. They shot only three times in the first quarter and six times in the second and hit only a total of three field goals from the floor but hit 9 of 13 free throws in the first half. Appomattox outrebounded SR 30-18 as Bobby Layne and Leon Robinson led in that department with 10 and eight respectively. Staunton River had 15 turnovers to 11 for the Raiders.

Bobby Layne led the Raiders in scoring with 16 points coming on seven of 12 shots. He was followed by Leon Robinson with 15 as he hit on seven of nine shots from the floor. Ricky Garrett and David Johnson each had 11 points, Garrett hitting on five of nine and five assist and Johnson 5 of 7 with 4 steals. All of his points came in the second half.

Ricky Morgan led the Golden Eagles with 25 points coming on six field goals and 13 of 14 free throws. Terry Mullins had 11 for the only other SR player in double figures.

Raiders Beat Hawks 87-66, Go To Finals

The Appomattox Raiders shot almost 80% from the floor in the fourth quarter as they scored 37 points to break open what had been a close game at times and beat the Gretna Hawks 87-66 in the semi-finals of the Seminole District basketball tournament last Wednesday night at Lynchburg College. The victory put the Raiders in the championship game against Altavista and also will send them to the regionals.

Gretna got off to an 18-15 lead in the first quarter as they shot 67% to 33% for the Raiders in the opening quarter. The Hawks jumped to a quick 8-0 lead before Appomattox could score with about five and a half minutes left in the quarter. At the start of the second quarter, David Johnson hit a three-point play to tie it at 18-18. It was tied at 20-20 and then Ricky Garrett got a three point play for a 23-20 as the Raiders then outscored the Hawks 22-9 in the second quarter and took a 37-27 halftime lead. Garrett had nine points in that quarter and Johnson seven. Gretna outscored the Raiders 20 - 15 in the third quarter and cut the lead to 52-47 after three quarters. The Hawks came to within two points (45-43) but the Raiders went back to the five point lead at the end of the period. In the last quarter, Appomattox took command at the start, and then powered it on as Garrett, Johnson, Sammy Waddell and Leon Robinson each hit three field goals and they hit 14 of 18 shots from the floor and scored 35 points in that quarter to 19 for the Hawks.

Ricky Garrett led all scorers as he hit for 21 points coming on eight of 17 shots and five of six free throws. Leon Robinson was next with 19 on eight of 13 and three free throws, Ken Gafford had 18, hitting eight of 17 and David Johnson 17 coming on eight of 12 shots, Gafford, Garrett and Sam Waddell each had five assist. Robinson pulled down 22 rebounds, followed by Garrett with 16 and Gafford 10.

Kenny Gaddy led Gretna with 18 points and Tyrone Kelly and Kim Felts had 12 and 10, respectively.

The Raiders hit 51% for the game coming on 36 of 70 shots and Gretna 47% coming on 29 of 65 shots. The Raiders pulled down 61 rebounds to 30 for Gretna, but Appomattox made 23 mistakes to 16 for the Hawks.

Altavista Beats Raiders 73-65 For Title

The Altavista Colonels took advantage of a cold shooting Appomattox Raider basketball team in the fourth quarter and beat the Raiders 73-65 in the championship game for the Seminole District basketball title last Saturday night at Lynchburg College, It was the third straight title for the Altavista team and the second straight year they beat the Raiders in the finals.

The Raiders were cold in the first quarter and a couple of turnovers that gave Altavista points saw the Colonels take a 16-11 lead at the end of the first period. In the second quarter Appomattox played strong defense and scored well as they outscored the Colonels 11-2 in the first three minutes and took a 22-18 lead. Altavista got it back at 26-24 with about three and a half minutes left in the half and each team fought back and saw the lead change hands a couple of times before it ended at 32-32 at the half. In the third quarter the Raiders were still strong as they finished the quarter ahead 52-51 as Bobby Layne hit for eight points in that quarter. The Raiders led 44-41 with a little over three minutes left in the quarter but Altavista came back to within one point at the buzzer, The score was tied once in the third quarter and the lead changed hands nine times in that period. In the last quarter the lead changed one time and that was when Altavista took the lead for good at 53-52. The Colonels ripped off 10 points to the Raiders two for a 61-54 lead. Appomattox came back to within four, 64-60, with about four minutes left, but another Colonel streak of seven points run it to 71-60 with less than two minutes to play. Appomattox then got their last five points in a row to make it 71-65 with 45 seconds and they could do no more as Altavista scored last.

Altavista put all five of their starters in double figures with big Mike Cook getting 22 points to lead his club, He was followed by Jerome Pannell with 16, Roney Tanks with 13, Ike Monroe with 12 and Hoot Peavey with 10.

Bobby Layne led Cook for game scoring honors as he collected 22 points also, Ricky Garrett was next with 15 and Leon Robinson and David Johnson each got 10. Sammy Waddell accounted for the other 8.

The turning point was the Colonels hot-shooting from the floor as they hit about 52% on 33 of 64 shots. The Raiders had hit better than 50% in the first two tournament games, but managed only about a 37% mark on 27 of 73 for the championship game. Both teams were at 39 rebounds apiece with Robinson getting 15 for Appomattox and Garrett and Layne getting 10 and seven respectively for the Raiders. Appomattox made only 13 turnovers to Altavista's 11.

Both teams earned a place in the Western Regionals to be held at Lynchburg College this week end.

Altavista and Appomattox also dominated the Seminole District All-Tournament team as each put two men on the squad and William Campbell added one. Roney Tanks and Mike Cook went from Altavista, while Leon Robinson and Ricky Garrett from Appomattox and Ricky Purcell from William Campbell.

Raiderettes Lose To Rustburg 32-30

The Rustburg girls beat the Appomattox Raiderettes 32-30 last Monday night in the semi-finals of the Seminole District for the girls in a game played at Rustburg. Rustburg was seeded No. 2 going into the tournament and the Raiderettes No. 3.

The Raiderettes had a 5 - 3 lead after a quarter of play, but Rustburg came back in the second quarter to tie it at 10-10 at the half. In the third quarter, Rustburg outscored Appomattox 14-8 for a 24-18 lead going into the last quarter. The Raiderettes made a strong comeback in the fourth quarter, but fell short by the two points.

Rustburg was led by Debbie Calohan and Carolyn Johnson with 10 points each. Calohan hit six of her points in the third quarter when Rustburg built up their six point lead.

Mary Louise McCraw was the only Raiderette to hit in double figures as she scored 10, but right behind her was Kay Paulette with nine.

Rustburg finished the regular season 13-2 overall and 12-2 in the district and Appomattox wound up 12-3 overall and 11-3 in the district.
